REAL-TIME OCCUPANCY

AXPER

Wait in line in the comfort of your vehicle

VIRTUAL QUEUE LINE

When the limit of people inside is reached, your customers will no longer have to wait in line outdoors with our virtual queue app.

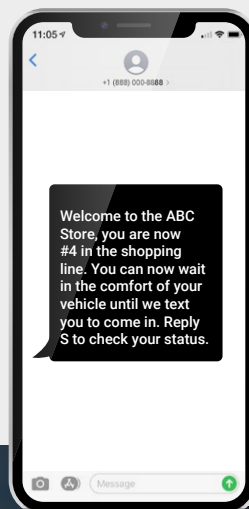

1.

Upon arrival, the customer registers their name on the platform.

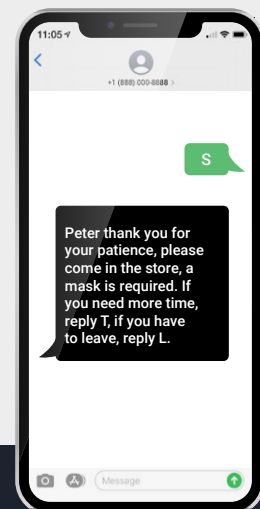

2.

The customer receives notifications for their place in the virtual queue.

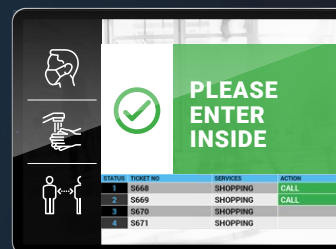

3.

The client receives a notification that it is their turn.

4.

Upon entering, the customer must validate their presence in order to be removed from the queue.
